MANAROLA is built on a high rock above sea level with clusters of picturesque, multicolored houses facing the sea. The harbor has a boat ramp and from the surrounding rocks there is good deep water swimming. The village has steep, narrow alleys leading down to the sea or up to the church where you will find beautiful views. There are good seafood restaurants in the village and great hiking trails in the hills and vineyards above the sea.