SAN GIMIGNANO is the village we see from our home in Certaldo, with its tall, well preserved medieval towers. Surrounded by 13th century medieval walls, the small city center includes a beautiful piazza surrounded by streets with shops, bars, restaurants and wineries. The frescos on the walls of the Duomo are memorable, depicting scenes from the Old and New Testament then, after a short climb up the main tower, we will be able to see Certaldo & the Apuan Alps. San Gimignano also claims to the “Worlds Greatest Gelato”!
