

GEOG 3250*

ENVIRONMENTAL HAZARDS

Ready to tackle the biggest challenges facing our planet AND make a difference on a global scale?
LEVEL UP YOUR IMPACT!

* GEOG 3250 is a part of ECU's Global BEEHIVE -- Business, Education, Environment, and Health International Virtual Exchange

Tuesdays/Thursdays
0930-1045

Location:
Graham 211

Instructor:
Dr. L J Palmer-Moloney

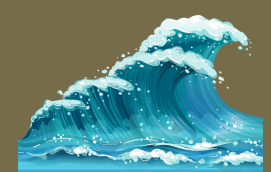

INCREASING HEAT

Fire Weather

Storm Intensification

Sea Level Rise, Storm surge & flooding

Point & Non-Point
Source Pollution

Drought

- Global perspective: Understand environmental hazards in a global context through engagement with international partners.
- Develop cross-cultural communication skills: Collaborate with students and experts from around the world.
- Become a climate change and sustainability champion on a global stage: Build risk assessment, preparedness, and response toolkit